Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Ecclesiastical History of Great Britain, Vol. 5 of 9: Chiefly of England, From the First Planting of Christianity, to the End of the Reign of King Charles the Second; With a Brief Account of the Affairs of Religion in Ireland There were several surrenders of the greater monasteries made the last year. This affair was carried on with all the application imaginable; insomuch that by the beginning of this year almost all the religious houses were resigned to the crown. This being a very extraordinary revolution both in Church and State, it will not be amiss to open the scene, to enlarge upon the circumstances, and acquaint the reader with the detail of this surprising emergency. To assist this project, and make it go down the better with the people, the monasteries had a heavy charge of disorder and immorality brought against them. That the narratives of this kind were swelled beyond truth and proportion, may well be suspected from the mercenary temper of some of the visitors, who begged for this employment, as...
