Excerpt: . . . 11 The prepared statement of Mr. Lampson follows: P S R N LAMPSON REPARED TATEMENT OF EPRESENTATIVE ICK Chairwoman Biggert, thank you for holding this hearing today on the Administra-tions progress on its climate change technology programs. I look forward to hearing from our outstanding panel of witnesses today. When President Bush announced the creation of two climate change initiatives in June of 2001, it was hoped that the Administration was beginning to focus on the climate change problem. While the science initiative at the Department of Commerce has made a signifi-cant amount of progress since President Bushs speech - the Climate Change Tech-nology Program at the Department of Energy has yet to share a review of existing programs or a strategic plan with this committee. It is my understanding that DOE has missed deadlines for releasing a draft plan for the program and completing the review of climate change programs. We also do not yet know DOEs criteria for selecting and prioritizing these projects. In the meantime, the White House Council on Environmental Quality recently outlined the Administrations major climate change initiatives. These include the Hydrogen fuels and cars initiative, the ITER fusion project, and FutureGen, the 1 billion prototype plant that will combine the production of hydro-gen and electricity from coal with geological sequestration of carbon. I am hopeful that we can hear from our witnesses today about the criteria that this Administration is using to choose which...
