Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 234 x 156 mm. Language: French . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Extrait; A Maurice O Reilly. Un philosophe Je m etais pris d une profonde sympathie pour ce grand flemmard de gabelou qui me semblait l image meme de la douane, non pas de la douane tracassiere des frontieres terriennes, mais de la bonne douane flaneuse et contemplative des falaises et des greves. Son nom etait Pascal; or, il aurait du s appeler Baptiste, tant il apportait de douce quietude a accomplir tous les actes de sa vie. Et c etait plaisir de le voir, les mains derriere le dos, trainer lentement ses trois heures de faction sur les quais, de preference ceux ou ne s amarraient que des barques hors d usage et des yachts desarmes. Aussitot son service termine, vite Pascal abandonnait son pantalon bleu et sa tunique verte pour enfiler une cotte de toile et une longue blouse a laquelle des coups de soleil sans nombre et des averses diluviennes (peut-etre meme antediluviennes) avaient donne ce ton special qu on ne trouve que sur le dos des pecheurs a la ligne. Car Pascal pechait a la ligne, comme feu monseigneur le prince de Ligne lui-meme. Pas un homme comme lui pour connaitre les bons coins dans les bassins et appater judicieusement, avec du ver de terre, de la crevette cuite, de la crevette crue ou toute autre nourriture traitresse. Obligeant, avec cela, et ne refusant jamais ses conseils aux debutants. Aussi avions-nous lie rapidement connaissance tous deux.
