

The Famous Ghalib: The Sound of My Moving Pen

By Ralph Russell (Expl.) & Marion Molteno (Rev.)

Lotus/Roli Books, New Delhi, India. Softcover. Book Condition: New. The second edition of Ralph Russells critically acclaimed The Famous Ghalib has been put together according to guidance left by the author/translator before his death in 2008. This book introduces Ghalib to anyone who wants to find out why his poetry has inspired generations of Urdu speakers and many others besides. It explains the form of poetry in which Ghalib wrote, and how he used its symbolism to express his response both to the universal experiences of life and to the times that he himself lived through. With over 200 couplets in Ralph Russells translations, alongside the original Urdu and also transcribed using both English and Hindi scripts, this is a must have for all poetry lovers. The translations are as concise as the original, matching Ghalibs intensity with words chosen to convey precise meaning; and they do this in English which flows naturally and with unobtrusive poetic metre. Printed Pages: 246.
