Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Speech of Mr. Bell, of Tennessee, on the Message of the President of the United States: Delivered in the House of Representatives, December 26, 1838 I mean concentrated power - associated official power. I mean (to speak practically) the concentration of power in the executive branch of the Government of the United States. It is worthy of serious notice that in a paper emanating, as this does, from the President himself, and which professes to set forth to a free people the most prominent dangers which threaten their liberties, and to awaken their vigilance against those evil tendencies which lurk in the system, the one which has always proved the most fatal - the tendency of power to accumulate in the hands of one man, and the grasping and monopolizing tendency of that power - is altogether omitted. Why is this? Why not admonish the people, when speaking of the tendencies of wealth in banks or elsewhere, that there was another most formidable danger in this and in every other free Government, which united all the evils of mere wealth with the more fearful passion of ambition? I affirm, then, sir, that this enumeration of the perils to which our free institutions are exposed is not perfect. If, said Mr. B., this warning given to the people in relation to the anti-republican tendency of associated wealth is only intended to be a continuation of the attacks heretofore made with so much acrimony upon the banking institutions of the country, I will not undertake to answer it in my own language, or by any arguments of my own, for I have never felt disposed to become...
