Dept. of Labor, Employment and Training Administration, Office of Policy and Research, 2002. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)50948349 Subject: Unemployment insurance -- United States. Excerpt: . . . federal government established a multi-agency task group to review the entire wage reporting process and to develop strategies fostering simplification and efficiencies both for the public and government. This group became known as the Simplified Tax and Wage Reporting System group (STAWRS). It is comprised of representatives of the Department of Labor, the Internal Revenue Service, the Department of Treasury, the Social Security Administration, and the Small Business Administration. The mission of STAWRS is to reduce employer tax and wage reporting burdens while improving the effectiveness of government operations. The programs overall objective is to develop strategies for a simplified tax reporting system that would replace the multitude of complex tax 4 reporting laws currently in effect. Among its goals are to encourage simplification in federal and state employment laws, to decrease the number of tax and wage forms used in the process, to provide leadership in developing increases in...
